Re: Roy Day v. MTA New York City Transit Authority, et al.
Docket No. 17-CV-7270 (VSB)

Dear Judge Broderick:

This office represents the defendants in the above-entitled action. On October 28, 2019, the defendants notified the Court that settlement of this action could not be achieved, and requested that a conference be scheduled to establish a case management plan and to issue a scheduling order. By Order dated October 29, 2019, the Court granted the application and directed the parties to submit a joint status letter and case management plan and scheduling order by November 11, 2019. See ECF 68. The Court also scheduled an initial pretrial conference for November 15, 2019. Id.

On November 12, 2019, Mr. Day informed us via telephone that he did not receive the Order dated October 29, 2019. Mr. Day requested that the initial pretrial conference be adjourned and that the parties' time to submit a joint status letter and case management plan and scheduling order be extended. The defendants consent to this adjournment and extension request.

It is respectfully requested, therefore, that the time to submit a joint status letter and case management plan and scheduling order be extended, and that the initial pretrial conference be adjourned. The parties propose the initial pretrial conference be adjourned to December 5, 2019.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

Respectfully,

Byron Z. Zinonos, Esq.
Agency Attorney
